

Tuesday July 19, with Rivi Frankel:

Tel Aviv- A City Built on Sand and Dreams

Meet at 9:30 am at Jaffa clock tower, finish at approximately 3 pm at Migdal Hashalom

Tel Aviv-Yaffo is the gateway to Israel. In both ancient times and today, multitudes of people entering Israel did so through this port city. Imagine the excitement of seeing the cedar trees from Lebanon making their way down the Mediterranean on their way to Shlomo's Jerusalem. Or how about accidentally bumping into Yona as he ran to catch his boat. Join us as we walk from ancient Yaffo through to Modern Tel Aviv with stops in Neve Tzedek, Florentine, Nachlat Binayamin, and the Independence Trail. Together we will explore how Jews have been expressing their emotions through the arts, Torah learning, and innovation- the biggest being of course the Modern State of Israel itself.
